

ANIMAHENASYON 2009: 3rd PINOY ANIMATION FESTIVAL

November 25-28, 2009

REGULATIONS

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Animahenasyon 2009: 3rd Pinoy Animation Festival is organized by the Animation Council of the Philippines, Inc. (ACPI).
2. Animahenasyon 2009 will be held in Manila, Philippines from the 25th to the 28th of November 2009. The festival aims to encourage the production of original content in Philippine animation, recognize the Filipino talent in the field of animation, and achieve local and international animation excellence and competitiveness.
3. Animahenasyon 2009 will be comprised of exhibits, animated films in competition and exhibition, international and business forums, master class/workshop and the awards night.

II. GENERAL INFORMATION

4. The competition is open to Filipino professional and student/amateur animators. Since this is the third of a series of continuing festival that ACPI will be organizing, only works completed from the year 2007 to present are eligible for competition (see categories for competition).
5. Entry works shall be made "frame by frame," including computer graphics animation.
6. Entries selected for competition will be accepted in mini DV formats only.
7. Entries must contain a color bar of 1 minute followed by a sound signal 0db (1,000 cycles per second) and a black leader of 5 seconds at the beginning.
8. For the student/amateur category: everything is assumed to be an original creation. With regard to using music, original music is encouraged and preferred. However, one may still use existing music as long as this is properly acknowledged and credited, and the animated work submitted was done as a school project or thesis and was completed during the period when s/he was a student. Failure to acknowledge or provide credit to the rightful copyright owners will result in the works being disqualified from the competition.
9. For professional category: everything is assumed to be an original creation. In case copyrighted characters, scripts, music, etc. are used, the entrant cannot submit the animated work without securing agreement/permission from the copyright owner. A certification from the copyright owner (artist/record company/producer) is required to be submitted together with the entry. Failure to obtain such agreement will result in the works being disqualified from the competition.
10. Categories for competition:

21. No entry form will be accepted if the required information and materials are not included and/or complete.

22. All entry forms and related materials must be submitted on or before 15 September 2009 and must be sent to:

ANIMATION COUNCIL OF THE PHILIPPINES, INC. (ACPI)
9/F The Palisades Condominium, 107 Perea Street, Legaspi Village, Makati City

23. Entrants will shoulder the shipping or air courier costs of entries and materials, either for pre-selection or final selection.

24. Finalists will be required to submit a mini-DV copy of their works for screening purposes. The final copies of competing works must arrive at the ACPI office not later than 30 September 2009. The organizers will not be held responsible for entries received after 15 October 2009 thereby resulting in the exclusion from the program.

IV. PROCESS OF SELECTION

25. There will be a pre-selection committee appointed by the festival organizers, largely constituted by the people involved in the fields of film and animation, and generally from the arts. Their task is to select the finalists eligible for competition. Entrants will be officially notified after the selection.

26. Pre-selection will be on September 18 and 19, 2009. Finalists shall be officially notified immediately the first working day after the pre-selection date to give them enough time to prepare and send to the festival organizers their final screening copies (in mini-DV format).

26. The festival organizers will appoint another set of jury who will handle the final judging and who also come from the fields of film and animation, and generally from the arts. Their task is to deliberate and identify the winners from the chosen finalists for each category. The names of the jury will be published on the festival souvenir program and announced during the awarding ceremony. Final Judging will be on October 3, 2009.

28. The jury will decide, according to his/her own criteria, based in the guidelines established by the festival committee. The jury has the power to declare (or not) the winner/s for the categories/division. The decision of the jury is deemed final and conclusive, and cannot be questioned, challenged or appealed against on any ground.

29. ACPI officers or members who are part of the festival committee and/or screening committee are disqualified from entering the competition.
